The Unity Group of North Brunswick is now in the process of planning the 2016 North Carolina Christmas Festival and Parade. This will be the 24rd year of this festival. As we have grown steadily each year and it will prove to be bigger than last year’s parade and festival.

The Unity Group of North Brunswick depends on the local businesses for support. If it were not for you the festival and parade cannot happen.

Your support by purchasing an ad in our parade program book would be greatly appreciated.

The ads fees remain at $25, $50, $100 and $250. The program book is presented free to the public the day of the festival. The program booklet will also be given to all the Businesses or Organization that purchases an ad.

We are very proud of the fact that we provide all our children’s activities and games free. We give all the children that attend a goody bag, free face painting and other free activities. We have lots of activities for our children and plenty of clean fun and entertainment for the whole family. Your donation goes toward helping us with our other activities and fund raising events throughout the year including the NC Christmas Festival and Parade.

Following is a list of options of the ad sizes you can purchase. Please check the type of ad you wish to include. Due to the time period of taking this to press we will need to have your ad no later than November 15, 2016
